EX-SENATOR NOEL IS SERIOUSLY CUT

Denounces Statement by W. N. G. Barron, Who Then Stabs Him Several Times.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Jonesville, Va., June 24.-News has just reached here of a serious difficulty between ex-Senator J. C. Noel, of Pennington Gap, and W. N. G. Barron, of the same place, a prominent farmer, in which Mr. Barron cut and seriously injured Mr. Noel with a knife. It is understood the difficulty arose over a road bonds, which Mr. Noel was advocating and Mr. Barron was opposing. Mr. Barron, it is reported, had used language against Mr. Noel in his absence reflecting upon him in the man-agement of the sale of a former road bond issue, in which he said there had been a great deal of graft in connec-tion with the expenditure of the road money. Early this morning Mr. Noel money. Early this morning Mr. Noel met Mr. Barron upon the street of the town of Pennington Gap and stated to him that he had understood he (Mr. Barron) had been talking about him. Mr. Barron replied, "What did you hear?" Mr. Noel, on repeating the umor which he had heard, was told by Mr. Barron that he had used the language and had nothing to take back

Direct Primary Bill Defeated in Assembly by Vote of 92 to 54.

| Special to The Times-Dispatch |
Albany, N. Y., June 24.—The direct primary bill, backed by Governor Sulzer, providing for the nomination of all State officials excepting Governor, was defeated in the Assembly to-day by a vote of 92 to 54.

The bill will be taken up in the Senate to-morrow, and it is believed it will meet the same fate from that body.

The six-weeks' campaign which Governor Sulzer has carried on for this bill resulted in a gain of seven votes over the poll when the bill was voted on at the regular session. One vote was lost to the opposition.

The Assembly will to-morrow take up the Blauvelt bill, or the Van Woort primary bill, which is almost identical with the Blauvelt bill. It was predicted to-night at the Capitol that one of these bills would pass the lower house. Governor Sulzer has characterized the Blauvelt measure as being a "makeshift" and "fraud."

Bowling Green, Va .- "My baby when one month old broke out on her scalp as I thought with heat. In a day or so the pim-ples had spread from one to the other until her scalp was covered across the top of her head and behind her ears with what we called milk crust. Her head was a mass of tores. Every day it got worse. She lost all of her hair whenever there was a scab. The itching was terrible as she couldn't get much sleep sometimes. Her face was covered with blood. It seemed as if nothing I could do would give her relief as she cried for hours 'So great was her agony when she was three months old I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment. After using them twice she slept better and her scalp began to heal. In three weeks' time the terrible crust had come off leaving the place healed. I continued to use Cuticura Soap and Ointment daily and when she was six months old her hair had grown out and there was no sign of a return of milk-crust. Now she has a lovely suit of hair."
